Well, done folks! Keep up this amazing achievement!

Many thanks for supporting our very important attendance drive. This week our whole school attendance is: 94.42%.

Our target is 96%! Let's go for it next week. Together, we can do it!

Extreme Hair Colours

Just a polite reminder that children should not come to school with extreme hair colours. Please save any temporary for summer holidays where there is time for it to wash out.

Thank You

Year 3&4 Girls Football Team

We would like to say a massive well done to the girl's football team who played absolutely brilliantly and won in their match on Tuesday.

They represented themselves and the school very well and should be very proud of themselves.

Reading Books & Author Visit

On 5th June author Harry Heape will be visiting school. Year 2-6 will have an opportunity to meet him in some special assemblies. There will also be an opportunity to purchase his books!

After the holiday we will be launching a new reading book system for our KS2 children. We are really excited to be sharing this with you soon!

Special Mention

We are very proud of Oliver in 3RQ who at the weekend won Parents Player of the year at his Presentation night and has now been signed for Bradford City too.

A huge well done!

Special Mention

We are very proud of Cecil 6HH who took part in her first duathlon. She ran 1.6km, cycled 6km and then ran again (400m) on a very hot day in 26 minutes!

A huge well done!

Special Mention

We are very proud of James 4JS who won another squash tournament again this weekend. HE took the top spot in the Boys U11s at the Macclesfield Silver!

A huge well done!

Behaviour Policy

Many thanks for your support with our new behaviour system. We are seeing much improved behaviour and attitude by our children and we are so very proud of them!

Sports Day

Our Sports day dates and times have now been added to the diary dates above. This will be the week commencing Monday
