This week, to celebrate World Book Day and how much we LOVE reading at Sandal Castle Primary School, above are some links that your children can explore each afternoon. Further resources are included below, feel free to swap activities in and out of the above timetable to suit you and your children! Contact me for more ideas if needed.

If you have texts that you would be covering in class and have means to share these with your children in school and at home, even if it is by sharing a reading list for the children at home or finding audio versions to share, feel free to send these out too.

Scholastic have put together a brilliant timetable of author events and activities- here is the link, you will be able to see which events will be appropriate for your class and the details for their parents to register or for you to register for children in school are included:

An example that could be tweaked and adapted:

Make a book mark - be as creative as you can!	Write a letter to your favourite character	Make a 'No Bake Gruffalo crumble' https://mummy2twindividuals.com/world-book-day-no-bake-gruffalo-recipe
Make a potato character	Competition - making 'book nooks' https://www.buzzfeed.com/christopherhudspeth/book-nooks-bookcases-shelves-creative-art-diy	Listen to an audio book.

Make a comic

Retell a story to somebody you live with - why not dress up and get into character?

Make finger puppets and create your own story to retell using them.

Create a setting for a story using an old shoebox.

Create story characters from empty toilet rolls.

Read a story to your pet or your cuddly toy!
